Snow Day

Reading Passages
And Questions

I looked out the dark window. The trees were swaying back and forth as if they were trying to dance away. Snow was falling like a white sheet over the ground in our yard.

Mama held baby Kay, and called me over to sit on her lap. We snuggled up to her warm, fuzzy robe. Mama gave us a soft hug and we just rested, thinking, dreaming, and waiting.

"BRINGGGG" The ring came as an alarm making mama jump! "Yes?" Mama said. "Ok," Mama said. And she hung up. I looked at her sleepy eyes. She closed them real slowly a couple of times and then she whispered to me to go back to sleep. This was going to be a snow day.

I curled up even closer to mama, cozy, and watched as the snow flakes kept falling.
